Greetings from Bobcat Country!

Montana State University-Bozeman warmly invites you to the third Tribal College Transfer Preview Day (TCTPD) on Thursday, November 5th and Friday, November 6th. TCTPD is sponsored by MSU’s Vice President for Academic Affairs and Provost and provides tribal college students who are interested in transferring to MSU-Bozeman an opportunity to learn about academic departments and student support services.

MSU will provide scholarships for lodging, meals and travel to one (1) tribal college faculty or staff chaperone from each Montana tribal college and three (3) students from each tribal college. PLEASE NOTE: The travel scholarship covers roundtrip mileage for one (1) tribal college vehicle from each college and students should travel to Bozeman with their designated tribal college chaperone. Individuals choosing to drive their own personal vehicles to Bozeman cannot be reimbursed for mileage or fuel. All participants will travel to Bozeman on Wednesday, November 4th and hotel lodging will be provided for two nights, NOV 4th and 5th. Tribal college students will be accommodated in shared rooms; tribal college chaperones will be provided individual rooms.

TCTPD activities will be held Thursday, NOV 5th and Friday, NOV 6th, concluding at Noon. Participants will have the opportunity to meet fellow students/staff from other tribal colleges and MSU staff, faculty and students from numerous university academic departments and support programs, including the American Indian/Alaska Native Office of Student Success, University Studies/Academic Advising, Financial Aid, and EMPower, which supports Native students in engineering and science.

Included with this letter are applications for interested tribal college students and faculty/staff, TCTPD posters to hang at your college, and informational materials about MSU-Bozeman. Please return the enclosed applications by October 19th to the address or email listed below, to help us select participants and confirm necessary travel arrangements. Faculty/staff chaperones are also requested to submit an application, which helps us make appropriate travel arrangements.

Please submit all application materials to:
