The Bozeman Public Library Foundation Presents Jazz & More...with Kelly Roberti Monday Summer Jazz series, Exploring the Arts

The Bozeman Public Library Foundation is expanding its Exploring the Arts series, bringing back the popular summer program: Jazz & More...with Kelly Roberti. The series begins Monday, June 1, and runs every Monday of the summer in the Library's large community room. All programs begin at 7pm and are free and open to the public.

The series will once again feature local musicians being interviewed by Roberti, followed by select musical performances. The line-up includes: Adam Platt, June 1; Eric Funk, June 8; Ann Tappan and Craig Hall, June 15; Matthew Savery, June 22; Bob Britten, June 29; and Alan Fauque, Eric Funk, and Jeni Fleming, July 6. The rest of the series will be announced as scheduled, but will continue through August.

Exploring the Arts is a series to learn about various musical and artistic styles, presented by talented performers from our Gallatin Valley community. These family-oriented programs are made possible through a generous grant from the Beim Foundation. To learn more about upcoming performances, please contact Foundation Director Paula Beswick, 582-2426.
