Friday, October 8, 2008
Byron Wallis & Alfredo Oyaguez
An evening of violin & piano selections from Mozart, Brahms, Messiaen and Rodrigo. Wallis, grandson of former MSU President Renne, returns to Montana for this special engagement.

Thursday, November 13, 2008
Reed Kroloff
Director of the Cranbrook Academy, Kroloff is a renowned architect, scholar and former editor of Architecture Magazine. He will address Ethical Practice in Art and Design.

Wednesday, January 14, 2009
Willem Volkersz
Volkersz, a native of Amsterdam, draws influence from his adopted homeland’s pop culture, especially oversized roadside attractions found only in America.

Wednesday, February 11, 2009
Robert Rydell
Guest Curator Rydell previews his 2009 National Building Museum exhibit on America’s Depression-era world’s fair. His talk offers a fascinating look at the past and future of world’s fairs.

Wednesday, March 25, 2009
John Michael Cooper
Internationally renowned Mendelssohn scholar, Cooper will speak on the parallels between Mendelssohn and Mozart as child prodigies. Musical performances of works by both will illuminate the evening.

Thursday, April 16, 2009
Dessert for the Spirit
A lively evening of two film screenings accompanied by spirits and desserts. Featuring award-winning films: Dali Lama Renaissance by Dennis Aig and Certain Green by Theo Lipfert

The President’s Fine Arts Series is made possible with the generous support of the following sponsors: Montana State University President’s Office, Alumni Association, College of Arts and Architecture, David & Kippy Sands, Larry Springer and Anonymous Donors.