Field-based skill development description –
The Graduate Assistant will work in the Diversity & Inclusion Student Commons (DISC) with a strong focus on LGBTQ student support and will also gain experience working directly with students from other underrepresented identity groups. Working in the DISC, the GTA will work with a number of campus departments and student groups to implement programs, build relationships, and integrate diversity into institutional conversations. This develops a deeper understanding of the institution's structure, landscape, and functions. In working closely with college students, the GTA will also strengthen their foundational knowledge of student learning, development, culture, demographics, and sub-populations which inform current educational practice. This position will offer opportunities to put educational research into practice.

Transferable/portable skill development description –
This position will help the GTA develop facilitation skills for presentations and trainings, organization and leadership of meetings and projects, critical thinking and problem-solving skills, program management, interpersonal skills, and knowledge of diversity issues.

Preferred skills/qualifications –
- Personal experience or previous work with LGBTQ college students or other LGBTQ populations
- Professionalism and maturity
- Solid understanding of diversity and inclusion
- Strong interpersonal skills
- Strong organizational skills
- Oral, written, and/or nonverbal communication skills
- Respect for and appreciation of a broad range of diverse identities
- Ability to work independently and as part of a team
- Meet academic requirements of a GTA position:
  - Full-time, degree-seeking graduate student
  - Maintain term enrollment of a minimum of 6 credits
  - Cumulative, term, and program of study GPA must be 3.00 or better
  - Make satisfactory annual progress toward degree achievement

Performance and Feedback
- The general philosophy of the DISC is to provide feedback on an ongoing basis.
- Formal feedback also will be provided on an annual basis using the standard Graduate School GTA Annual Review form.

Compensation
- Stipend: $1,100 per month over a 10-month period, August to May.
- The appointment is for no more than 19 hours/week.
- Per the Collective Bargaining Agreement, an additional payment of $130 per payment, during the Academic Year (Fall and Spring) only, to defray costs including, but not limited to, living and healthcare costs.
• In-state tuition remission up to 6 credits/term are available for successful candidates but is not guaranteed.
• The student is responsible for all university fees.
• This position is part of the Graduate Student Union. As such, the GTA must pay monthly union dues or representation fees. If non-academic issues arise, the GTA may take concerns to their supervisor or the University's Human Resource Department.
