Yes, it’s true, in order to be considered for any 2019 summer seasonal positions with the US Forest Service, you must apply between September 10th and October 10th, 2018. This new timeframe is to allow for full background checks to be completed before employee start dates.

Positions Include:

Wildland Fire Fighting—Helitack, Handcrews, Hotshots, Engine Operators, Dispatch
Forestry Technicians—Recreation, Wilderness/Trails, Forestry
Wildlife Technicians
Plant Technicians
Range Technicians
Archeology Technicians
Hydrology/Fisheries Technicians
Visitor Information Assistants
Equipment Operators
Engineering Technicians
Soils Technicians

Don’t settle for less next summer.

· Build your resume
· Work as a team
· Contribute to public land stewardship

For More information about seasonal jobs on the Beaverhead-Deerlodge grab a tag!

The USDA Forest Service is an equal opportunity provider, lender, and employer.