

DAEE Academic Research Seminars Fall 2018

Below is the current departmental seminars for Fall Semester 2018. Volunteers and suggestions for other speakers are encouraged. Please contact Mark Anderson or Carly Urban.

Date/Time/Location	Presenter/Host	Title
Wednesday, August 29 7:30 PM Ballroom A, SUB	Angus Deaton, Department of Economics, Princeton University (Host: Vince Smith)	Inequality and Deaths of Despair www.montana.edu/regecon/angusdeaton
Friday, August 31 3:15 – 4:45 PM 406 Linfield	Ryan Brown, Department of Economics, University of Colorado Denver (Host: Mark Anderson)	Human Capital and Infectious Disease: Evidence from Mexico’s Clean Water Program
Friday, September 21 3:15 – 4:45 PM 406 Linfield	Matt Taylor, Department of Economics, University of Montana (Host: Mark Anderson)	Cognitive Ability and Behavior in the Lab: Are Differences in Intrinsic Motivation a Problem?
Thursday, October 18 3:15 – 4:45 PM 406 Linfield	Julie Berry Cullen, Department of Economics, University of California, San Diego (Host: Mark Anderson)	To Be Determined
Friday, October 19 5:30 – 6:30 PM 125 Linfield	Julie Berry Cullen, Department of Economics, University of California, San Diego (Host: Mark Anderson)	Distinguished Lecture Series Attitudes Toward Government and Tax Evasion <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Abstract • Curriculum Vitae • Flyer
Friday, November 2 3:15 – 4:45 PM 406 Linfield	Justin Gallagher, Department of Agricultural Economics & Economics (Host: Mark Anderson)	The Effect of Cash Assistance on Household Finance and Business Growth after a Natural Disaster
Tuesday, November 13 3:15 – 4:45 PM 406 Linfield	Amanda Countryman, Department of Agricultural and Resource Economics, Colorado State University (Host: Mark Anderson)	A COOL Tale: Welfare of the U.S. Mandatory Country of Origin Labeling Repeal
Friday, November 16 3:15 – 4:45 PM 406 Linfield	Krishna Regmi, University of Alabama (IRAEA) (Host: Carly Urban)	Labor Demand Shocks at Birth and Cognitive Achievement during Childhood