Assistant Live Production Supervisor

See yourself directing, supervising, and coordinating the Live Production operations by applying sound husbandry practices to attain the area's production objectives. Opportunities exist to learn how to secure and maintain the assets of the company to provide continuance of operations with minimum of downtime at least cost.

Primary Functions

- Accountable for meeting the requirements of quality, productivity, standard costs, safety, Hazard Analysis and Critical Control Points (HACCP), and Total Quality Control (TQC)
- Assist in directing the company safety and security programs to protect employee welfare and corporate assets while achieving corporate objectives
- Assist with the management of flocks within your assigned farm departments in direct communication with your breeder department manager and within the guidelines set forth by the department production guide to achieve optimum breeder performance
- Assist with the management and monitor the environmental conditions of the farm's flocks, seeing that all details necessary for maximizing performance are carried out on a consistent basis

Live Production Internship

The summer internship will last approximately three months. You will work 40+ hours per week with a variable work schedule. You will be introduced to a progressive and dynamic turkey breeder or grow out operation which will provide you live production experience that will be beneficial in the future.

You will apply your managerial, leadership, and interpersonal skills to the daily management of a flock and be given the chance to be involved in the design, execution, and analysis of your own project, depending on your interests and our needs. This opportunity gives you the exposure to research trials and design.

Qualified candidates will have completed their junior year with a Science, Business, or Agricultural related major with a minimum 2.7 GPA; and demonstrated analytical, problem-solving, leadership, and interpersonal skills.

Requirement: Must be a United States Citizen or legally authorized to work in the United States. Jennie-O Turkey Store does not participate in sponsorships.
