

MONTANA STATE UNIVERSITY
COLLEGE OF EDUCATION, HEALTH AND HUMAN DEVELOPMENT
CERTIFICATION OFFICE
(Effective Spring Semester, 2003)

School Counseling Certification (Class VI)

Requires a Master's of Education Degree with a School Counseling Option that includes the following coursework -or- a Master's Degree with equivalent Graduate Level School Counseling Content to include the following coursework:

HDCF 554	Human Development in Family Context
HDCO 525	Counseling Children and Adolescents
HDCF 563	Individual and Family in a Social Content
HDCO 524	Consulting with Family, Schools, & Large Systems
HDCO 508	Child, Family and Marital Therapy
HDCO 510	Introduction to Counseling
HDCO 571	Professional Counseling Practicum
HDCO 521	Counseling Skills Lab
HDCO 576	Internship
HDCO 522	Group Counseling and Methods
HDCO 558	Careers Development and Counseling
HDCO 551	Appraisal of Individuals and Systems
EDCI 506	Applied Educational Research
HDCO 506	School Counseling and Guidance Programs
HDCO 502	Counseling Ethics and Professional Orientation
HDCO 505	Professional Issues in School Counseling
	Elective

NOTE: Montana law requires that any applicant for initial licensure, any person seeking emergency authorization of employment, or any applicant seeking to reinstate a lapsed, revoked or suspended license must submit information and material for a fingerprint-based FBI background check.