NETWORKING MAP: A networking map is a diagram that shows the various stakeholders and personnel resources that the organizations has at it’s fingertips. It should be conceptual framework for better understanding how you can use the people around for the most organizational gain.