You want to buy a pop, but today pop has increased to $1.25. You only have 75 cents. How would you get the money to get a pop?
-Jon Redland

You would like to buy a bike this month. Your father says that you need to come up with half the money by yourself and that is $45. However, you only receive $25 month in allowance. How would you come up with the difference?
-Aaron Blair

Your child wants a Playstation 2. What can you do together with your child to accomplish this goal to purchase one?
-Peggy Aquino