May CFE workshops

Join us as the Spring semester winds down for some great CFE workshops!

Connecting your Research with the Community: Ideas and Strategies for Grant Proposals
Tuesday, May 8, 2018  Innovative Learning Studio (Library) 11:45 AM – 1:00 PM
[Click here to RSVP]

Facilitated by  Suzi Taylor, Assistant Director Outreach and Communications and Jamie Cornish, Outreach Specialist, from Academic Technology & Outreach

Suzi and Jamie will give an overview of strategies for writing great Broader Impact or other public outreach plans when writing proposals. Some key things they will cover are ongoing outreach activities that you could join, needs assessments, and ways to evaluate the activities. They will share ideas from the 2018 National Alliance for Broader Impacts (NABI) Summit.

Planning Productivity: Hands-On Summer Planning Session
Thursday, May 10, 2018  Innovative Learning Studio (Library) 10:00 – 11:30 AM
[Click here to RSVP]

Facilitated by  Vanessa Simonds and Suzanne Held, Health & Human Development

Join us to watch the “Every Summer Needs a Plan” webinar from the National Center for Faculty Development and Diversity.

- Do you often start the summer with high hopes for your writing projects, but end disappointed by your actual productivity?
- Do you desperately want (or need) to write a lot this summer?
- Do you want to figure out how to be more productive AND enjoy your life this summer?

In this hands-on planning session, we will watch the NCFDD webinar and then Vanessa and Suzanne will be on-hand to help you create your summer plan.
