March Book Discussion Group: How Learning Works: Seven Research-Based Principles for Smart Teaching by Ambrose and Bridges.

Our annual book discussion group will meet three times in March this year. We discussed this book several years ago and have received requests from faculty who could not attend for a repeat.

Thursday 3/10, Tuesday 3/22, and Thursday March 24. Individuals need to be able to attend all sessions. 12:00 – 1:00 p.m.
Books will be provided and a light lunch will be served. Location TBA and will be announced to those who RSVP below.

The authors of this book draw upon research in psychology, education, and cognitive sciences to provide seven powerful student learning principles and give practical ideas and suggestions to help you improve student learning in your classes.

Facilitators: Jan Zauha, Library; Mike Babcock, Psychology; Lindsey Downs, ITC; Brent Rosso, Jake Jabs College of Business and Entrepreneurship.

RSVP by March 1 to make sure you receive a book and a place in the discussion: https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/DH99JTL

Direct questions about any workshops to Chris Salstrom christine.salstrom@montana.edu or 4371.