NACADA Webinar-Academic Advising – Advising Needs of First Generation Students – Taking a Closer Look

Wednesday, March 23, Animal Bioscience Building. Session begins promptly at 12:00 noon. Desserts and refreshments will be provided, bring your own sack lunch.

RSVP: advising@montana.edu (register early, space is limited to 40)

Advising Needs of First Generation Students – Taking a Closer Look will explore a full spectrum of first generation student experiences, from those who are high-achieving to those who enter college having not yet met the general entrance requirements for their program of study.

Sponsored by Academic Advising Center.