Join us on September 17 for a two-part session presented by

Dustin Jensen, Technology Specialist, i>clicker
Jeff Adams, Assistant Vice Provost for Undergraduate Education, MSU

I. Exciting new developments from i>clicker!

We are excited to announce our new developments and software updates for i>clicker. Please join us for lunch and learn how your students can poll from their laptop, web-enabled phone, or even from another campus. We will also discuss upgrades to the software as well as other products to enhance teaching and learning.

II. Learn how to use i>clicker in your classroom.

We are happy to announce that we have upgraded the i>clicker software. Please join us to learn how to use our enhanced software and simplified program features. We will provide a complete i>clicker training to get you started using i>clicker for the fall semester.
