   A. Financial Engineering – proposal for a new undergraduate major and minor

III. New Parking Proposal– Robert Putzke

IV. Matt Caires, MSU Dean of Students
   Higher education institutions all across the country are working to improve their practices for working with “students of concern.” New tools are being designed to assist administrators to identify and intervene when students demonstrate behavior or actions that threaten themselves, or others. Matt Caires will lead a discussion on the current tools and infrastructure that exists at MSU to respond to reports of students of concern, along with proving some details on the direction of this work at MSU for the future.

V. Adjournment

Signature
John Neumeier, Chair
Robert Mokwa, Chair-elect

Footnotes
\(a\) Proposed academic offerings that are ready for senate vote. These items have been through the research and review process including approval by the Curriculum and Programs Committee (CPC). These proposals will be forwarded to the Provost's Office subsequent to approval by Faculty Senate.

\(b\) Proposed academic offerings that are currently undergoing CPC review. The list of offerings is provided herein for your information and action, as necessary. Please refer to the draft proposals, which are available on the Faculty Senate web page, for more details.
