

BOR New Program Review

R. Larsen, 9/21/2016

Old Review Process for New Academic Programs (As Perceived)

Old Review Process for New Academic Programs (Reality)

As of March 2015

---

Review Process for New Academic Programs and Research Centers

TIMING

MSU Academic Plan

- Updated annually (March)
- Approved on campus (April)
- Sent to BOR at May meeting

TIMING

---

Intent to Plan Form

- Submit any month
- One month review process
- Online form to submit
- Automated approval process

TIMING

Level II Document

- CIM Online Form creates the Level II document for a new academic program
- New research center uses a different Level II form

TIMING

Campus Review (CIM)

- Typically takes two months
  - Department
  - College
  - University
    - Faculty Senate
    - Deans Council

TIMING

BOR Review

- Decision at one meeting
- Submit 7 weeks in advance
- Level IIs accepted 4x per year

March, May, Sept., November

TIMING

NWCCU Review

- Taking over three months
- Substantive change proposal needed
- Need BOR approval documented prior to submission to NWCCU

TIMING

Overall Review: 9+ months

- 2 mo. Intent to Plan Review
- 2 mo. Campus Review
- 2 mo. BOR Review
- 3 mo. NWCCU Review

Summary: New Academic Program

New: Program

Option*

Course

Change: Program

Option

Course

Changes: Extent of Campus Review

“SCOPE”

- Impacts multiple colleges >> University Scope
  - Full review
- Impacts multiple depts >> College Scope
  - Review to College level only
- Impacts single department >> Dept. Scope
  - Review at Department level only

