Federal Loans

Eligibility for 2018 Summer Session is based on your 2017-2018 FAFSA. To be eligible to receive federal loan assistance, you must be enrolled for a minimum of 6 credit hours as a regular student in an eligible program for the purpose of obtaining a degree or certificate. This includes the parent PLUS Loan. The amount of your loans are contingent on how much of your annual limit has been borrowed in Fall 2017 and/or Spring 2018. If you have not filed a 2017-2018 FAFSA, it must be received by the federal processor no later than June 30, 2018. Please file FAFSA(s) electronically at www.fafsa.ed.gov. Note: Private loans are available for summer sessions from a variety of lenders.

Federal Pell Grant

Eligibility for the Pell Grant will be based on your enrollment level across all summer sessions. Students attending at least half-time will have their eligibility based on either the 2017-2018 or the 2018-2019 FAFSA. Please turn in both for maximum consideration. Awarding will be made based on the best award. If you are approaching graduation, attending Fall 2018 or Spring 2019 only or approaching your lifetime limit, please stop by the office to discuss options. If you have not filed a 2017-2018 FAFSA, it must be received by the federal processor no later than June 30, 2018. Please file FAFSA(s) at www.fafsa.ed.gov.

NOTE: Institutional Scholarships are not available for the summer. Departmental or outside scholarships may be available and you will need to pursue those on your own.

CERTIFICATION

The summer 4X4 model is academically compressed to allow for greater flexibility. Please review your schedule with an academic advisor as changes to your summer enrollment will impact your aid. I understand that if I fail to attend or complete any class on which my 2018 summer session financial aid is based, it MAY result in my being subject to full or partial repayment of the financial aid funds I received.
