Meeting started at 2:03 pm

Jan 28, 2019 minutes

• Livingston moves, Rydell second, unanimous approval

Announcements

- Faculty Senate update (Austin)
  - Workload policy and guidelines were approved; should be provided to departments later this spring or fall
  - Internship policy for undergrad and graduate students was revised to include academic components
    - First reading in faculty senate this week
- Graduate School update: new DPC staff member Emily Peters

Old Business

- PhD Enhancement Funds, decisions
  - 19 requested, historically budgeted for 12

Reporting of Comprehensive Exam requirement

- Review of changes: exam name changed for consistency, changed reporting time requirement
- Concern raised about the change of policy and "Mastery of Foundations" terminology
- Open discussion
  - Discussion that name change was originally proposed to avoid confusion with current terminology that is used interchangeably (comprehensive or qualifying)
  - Concern that mastery of foundation covers qualifying but not comprehensive exams
  - Call for suggestions of alternate names
    - Suggestion: first and second exams
    - Suggestion: milestone exam one and two
  - Discussion of the purpose of reporting these exams, such as tracking and accreditation; potential uses of qualifying exam distinctions, such as increased stipends, student status
  - Question of how many programs have multiple exams: 10
  - Suggestion to create a separate form to report exams versus defense
- Dean Larsen will draft an updated proposal

New Business

- MS in Bioengineering program proposal (Livingston)
  - Interdisciplinary team proposed the program to fill a need; no additional funding requested
  - Call for comments
    - No concerns
  - Livingston will submit UGC approval for faculty senate

Committee Reports

- Policy & Procedures Committee
- Curriculum Committee
- Governance Committee
