The Spring 2018 Photography Contest “Healthy Aging” begins March 1st, 2018 and ends March 31st 2018. By submitting an entry, each entrant agrees to the Official Rules and warrants that his or her entry complies with all requirements set out in the Official Rules. This is a skilled-based contest and chance plays no part in the determination of winners.

WHO MAY ENTER
Students of Montana State University who are actively enrolled during the 2017-2018 school year are eligible to participate. Prizes are awarded to the top 3 photos.

WHAT TO ENTER
The theme of the contest is “Healthy Aging”. Photographs (Color or Black & White) cannot be of minors (anyone under the age of 18) Only photographs taken by the student who submits the photo are eligible.

HOW TO ENTER AND OFFICIAL RULES
All photographs will be submitted online to be eligible. Photographs must be in a .jpeg, .jpg or .gif format. No print or film submissions will be accepted for this Contest. The photograph need not be taken with a digital camera; high-quality scans of negatives, transparencies, or photographic prints are acceptable. Digital photographs should be taken with the highest resolution possible; however, files submitted may not be larger than 2,048k (2 Mb Each photograph should have a (1-5) word description of the photo.

Student entrants may submit only one entry in either of the two categories, using your student email, MSU employees should use their MSU email account and send to: experienceofaging@gmail.com. Entrants must use their own MSU email user ID to submit their photographs. (This determines who receives credit as the photographer.) Each photograph will be titled (1-5 words). Include a signed copy of the Model Release/Informed Consent Form for any person whose likeness appears in your submission. The entrant is responsible to submit a signed release to the MSU Gerontology Certificate Program via email or in person at 205 Herrick Hall.

The photograph, in its entirety, must be a single work of original material taken by the Contest entrant. By entering the Contest, entrant represents, acknowledges, and warrants that the submitted photograph is an original work created solely by the entrant, that the photograph does not infringe the rights of any person or entity, and that no other party has any right, title, claim, or interest in the photograph. Entries are void if the Sponsor determines the photograph to not be an original, or for any other reason Sponsor deems valid including, but not limited to, objectionable or inappropriate content.

Proof of submission is not proof of receipt.

The Gerontology Certificate Program and Montana State University reserve the right to display winning and non-winning photos and use all photos submitted in any way deemed appropriate to sponsors at no cost and without any additional permission from entrant. Entrants retain all other rights to their own photographs.

RELEASES

If the photograph contains any material or elements that are not owned by the entrant and/or which are subject to the rights of third parties, and/or if any persons appear in the photograph, the entrant is responsible for obtaining, prior to submission of the photograph, any and all releases and consents necessary to permit the exhibition and use of the photograph in the manner set forth in these Official Rules without additional compensation. If any person appearing in any photograph is under the age of majority in their state/province/territory of residence the signature of a parent or legal guardian is required on each release.

All releases must be in the form provided by the Sponsor. Failure to provide such releases will result in disqualification.

Similarly, each entrant must provide a signed written license from the copyright owner of any sculpture, artwork, or other copyrighted material that appears in the photograph entry, authorizing the entrant and the university to reproduce, distribute, display, and create derivative works of the entry in connection with the Contest and promotion of the Contest, in any media now or hereafter known. Failure to provide such releases upon submission will result in disqualification.
