The Eighth Annual Hoaglund Philosophy and Religious Studies
Conference at Christopher Newport University:

Media, Ethics, & Religion

April 22, 2017
At Christopher Newport University, VA

The 8th Annual Hoaglund Conference at Christopher Newport University invites undergraduate students from all disciplines to submit paper proposals addressing the topic, "Media, Ethics & Religion,” broadly construed.

Abstract, Paper and Presentation Guidelines: Abstracts should provide an understanding of the main topics of the paper and should not exceed approximately 200 words in length. The recommended length of papers is 8-10 pages, double-spaced. Presentations will be 15-20 minutes in length including time for questions and answers.

Submission Protocol: Submit an abstract to melina.gonzales.13@cnu.edu. Please remember to include name, title and institutional affiliation. Deadline for receipt of abstracts: March 18, 2017. Full length papers must be received by April 1, 2017 in order to be considered for presentation at conference.
