EMPLOYEE RESPONSIBILITIES

All retiring employees must submit a written notice of retirement that includes an effective date to his/her immediate supervisor and copy the appropriate department representative responsible for processing Electronic Personnel Action Forms. This Retiree Separation/Termination Checklist must be initiated and signed by a representative of the home department who can attest to having received a written notice of retirement.

Additionally, all retiring employees must obtain signatures from the Facilities Services, University Police, University Business Services, and Human Resources regarding the following items:

a. University Police, Huffman Building

All traffic fines must be paid before you separate from the University. This signature verifies that you have paid all traffic fines.

University Police Representative ___________________________ Date ________

(For University Police Use Only)

Parking Due $__________________________ __________________________ Initials

b. Facilities Services, Plew Building (6th Ave. and Grant St.)

All keys issued to you must be returned to Facilities Services. This signature verifies that no keys remain checked out under your name. You understand that failure to return keys upon termination of your employment at MSU may result in their being considered stolen property and being reported to the proper authorities. Please see http://www.facilities.montana.edu/fs/admin/key_requests.html for key return hours.
