MONTANA STATE UNIVERSITY

AMERICAN INDIAN HERITAGE DAY

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 23RD

9:00 am - 11:00 pm  American Indian Student, Faculty, and Staff Poster Session - Alumni Legacy Lounge & Renee Library

11:00 am - 1:00 pm  American Indian Information Fair - Centennial Mall

Professional Presentations in the Alumni Legacy Lounge
1:15 pm  Welcome by President Waded Cruzado
1:30 pm  “Indigenous Cultural Ecology” by Dr. Ferlin Clark (Dine’)
2:45 pm  “Ethnobotany and the Madison Buffalo Jump” by Linwood Tall Bull (Northern Cheyenne) & Bill Goold
4:15 pm  Special Guest

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 24TH

10:00 am  Madison Buffalo Jump presentation by Linwood Tall Bull and Bill Goold - Madison Buffalo Jump State Monument

*Please bring a light jacket, walking shoes, and water.

The program is free and open to the public.

For information on signing up for poster sessions or for the information fair go to www.montana.edu/nativeamerican
For information about American Indian Heritage Day events contact Francine Spang-Willis at (406) 994-5529.

MSU American Indian Heritage Day is sponsored by the Native American Studies Department/American Indian Alaska Native American Student Success Services, Office of the President, Diversity Awareness Office, Dean of Students Office, College of Agriculture, College of Arts & Architecture, Office of Institutional Equity, Office of Student Engagement, TRIO Student Support Services, Friends of Madison Buffalo Jump, & St. James Episcopal Church.