Instruction and research activities together constitute nearly half of MSU - Bozeman’s expenses ($99.5 million, or 48%), with three-quarters of that attributable to compensation and benefit expense. Auxiliary expenses of $19.8 million are heavily weighted toward compensation and benefits, with costs of supplies and merchandise also contributing significantly to total auxiliary expenses.