

September 9, 2008

9/9/08, 12:45 p.m. -- Montana State University Police are investigating a report from a female MSU student who said she was physically and sexually assaulted in her residence hall room by a man she met Saturday Evening. She met him in a local bar and subsequently returned to her room with him. The alleged assaults occurred about 5 a.m. Sunday. The student described the alleged assailant as Hispanic, 5'5" or 5'6", thin, with a gap between his front teeth and wearing a mustache. Anyone with information should call the MSU Police at 994-2121.

March 13, 2008

Philip James Gilhousen was arrested by MUS Police on March 11, 2008, and charged felony indecent exposure after he was seen running naked near Nelson Story Tower and Julia Martin Drive in Family and Graduate Housing.

Gilhousen, 35, is a white male, 6'1", 225 pounds. He has blue eyes and blond hair. He has a large tattoo on his right shoulder and a tattoo on his left shoulder. A photo of Gilhousen can be found in the attachment with this email.

Gilhousen has a record of convictions for similar and other crimes. He is also a suspect in another indecent exposure on the MSU campus.

He is not a current or former MSU student, nor is he an employee of MSU.

This individual has been banned from MSU campus. Anyone seeing him on campus should immediately contact the MSU Police Department by calling 911 or 994-2121.

As always, individuals should exercise caution in their daily routine to avoid being the victim of crime.

Residents should remember such safety practices as: locking doors; staying alert and being aware of their surroundings; avoid traveling alone when possible; staying in well-lighted places; and immediately reporting any suspicious or unusual behaviors to police.