Dinner & Dialogue Presents

Cultural Transitions

Adjusting to a new place and culture can generate a mix of emotions, but you are not alone. Many students encounter a range of difficulties and unplanned stress as they transition to adapting to college life and life in the Gallatin Valley. If you are seeking connection and wanting to discuss around cultural transition, or just want to learn more about it please join us for a casual dinner and insightful dialogue. This will be a safe space to explore the unforeseen ways adapting to a new culture can affect us.

Wednesday, September 19, 4 to 5:30 pm

Please RSVP here today!

Weatherly Memorial Lecture Confronting Sexual Violence in Native America

Sarah Deer (Muscogee (Creek) Nation) has worked to end violence against women for over 25 years and was named a MacArthur Fellow in 2014. Her scholarship focuses on the intersection of federal Indian law and victims' rights.

Prof. Deer is a co-author of four textbooks on tribal law. Her latest book is The Beginning and End of Rape: Confronting Sexual Violence in Native America, which has received several awards. Her work on violence against Native women has received national recognition from the American Bar Association and the Department of Justice. She currently teaches at the University of Kansas. Professor Deer is also the Chief Justice for the Prairie Island Indian Community Court of Appeals. Here is more information on American Indian Heritage Days which will be celebrated Sept 27 -28.

Announcements

Jon Wanago Scholarship

The Paint Factory is offering a $2,000 scholarship in memory of Jon Wanago and all MSU students are eligible. Terms & details are here. Go to the Paint Factory at 2630 W. Main Street to enter by October 5. The winner will be drawn October 8. Champ Change on the Mall

Get those Champ Change points every day across campus to get free stuff at the end of the semester. The largest item you can get in the online auction is a $1,000 tuition waiver. That takes effort and a strategy starting from day 1 of the semester. Here's another opportunity: get extra points each Friday on Centennial Mall from 11:30 to 1 pm at the Champ Change table. In October, you'll find the table in the Union Market.

Group Wellness Coaching

Free to full-time students, these 45 minute group sessions begin either September 24th or October 8th and are sponsored by the Office of Health Enhancement. Space is limited. Contact Marie Nelson at marie.nelson2@montana.edu or call 406-994-4380 to reserve a spot.

Smarty Cats Tutoring

When you log onto your Smarty Cats account, it will show a $0.00 balance. You should be able to book an unlimited amount of tutoring even though it doesn't look like you have money on your account. If you have a problem with the site, let AYCSS know or the folks in the TRIO Office.

Also, don't forget about the many tutoring resources available in the various learning centers across campus: The Writing Center, Math Learning Center, Chemistry Center, Computer Science Center and Physics Center. All have regular hours during the school year.

Chemistry Tutoring

Mary Lou Carlson will be tutoring Chem 121, 123, 141 and 143 in drop-in tutoring in Reid 206 on Monday from 9 am - noon, Wednesday from 3 - 6 pm, and Thursday from 11 - 2. Please join her if you need tutoring in Chemistry.

Math Tutoring

Roger Fischer will be tutoring Math 065, 088, 095 and 096 in Roberts 312-C the following times: Monday & Wednesday from 11 - 11:50 am; Tuesday & Thursday from 4:10-5 pm. Please take advantage of his talents in teaching Math.
