

Mr. LeRoy Gaub, Program Manager for the Lewis and Clark Region of Troops to Teachers, was presented a Distinguished Patriot Medal by the Adjutant General for the State of Montana, Brigadier General John Walsh, at the opening game for the Montana State University Bobcats on 4 September, 2010. This honor was bestowed for Mr. Gaub's outstanding leadership of the Troops to Teachers program. Pictured with Mr. Gaub and Brig. Gen. Walsh above is Ms. Sheila Gaub, who also received a Patriot Award for her work with Quilts of Valor in Montana.
