Don't Bite!

When scammers steal information about you that includes the names of companies you do legitimate business with they are able to devise very convincing phishing scams. Remember to never respond to e-mails that ask for personal or financial information and avoid clicking links!

For more information about how to protect yourself visit:

http://www.montana.edu/itcenter/security/tip

A Message from IT Center Enterprise Security