To click or not to click: that is the question.

Spear Phishing uses convincing e-mails to trick you into divulging personal information or into visiting fake websites. Never provide your username or password to anyone and do not click on links in e-mail messages. To learn more visit:

http://www.montana.edu/itcenter/security/tip

A Message from IT Center Enterprise Security