Has your computer been sluggish?  Have programs been acting strangely?
Are there icons or programs that you didn’t install?

If you answered yes to any of these questions then you may have a computer virus and should contact the IT Center Helpdesk immediately for assistance.

For more information on the symptoms, prevention, and treatment of computer viruses please visit:

http://www.montana.edu/itcenter/security/tip

A Message from IT Center Enterprise Security