

(RE)ENVISIONING THE OUTDOORS:

EXPLORING THE INTERSECTION OF IDENTITY AND PUBLIC LANDS

SUNDAY, APRIL 22 AT 5:30 PM
STRAND UNION BALLROOMS B, C & D, MSU

FEATURED SPEAKER: MIKAH MEYER

PLEASE JOIN MIKAH MEYER FOR A PRESENTATION AND COMMUNITY DISCUSSION EXPLORING THE INTERSECTION OF IDENTITY AND PUBLIC LANDS. Mikah is a new type of LGBTQ role model with a mission to invite people to the outdoors, highlight the importance of public lands being welcoming to people of all identities, and to share all 417 national park sites with the world. Mikah's talk will be followed by a moderated dialogue with community leaders, along with National Heritage Areas Program Manager Alex Hernandez, working to build a more inclusive outdoors. Read up on Mikah's story here: www.mikahmeyer.com.

VISIT MONTANA.EDU/LGBTQ FOR MORE INFORMATION

