

"We sought justice because equal pay for equal work is an American value."

-Lilly Ledbetter

Lilly Ledbetter

Lilly Ledbetter

Monday, March 31st | 6:30 PM | Strand Union Ballrooms

Upon the realization that she was being paid thousands of dollars less than her male counterparts, Lilly Ledbetter set out on a journey for justice. The namesake for President Obama's first piece of legislation, The Lilly Ledbetter Fair Pay Act, she will tell her inspiring story of determination and courage in her fight to establish equal pay for equal work for women through America's legal system.

Ms. Ledbetter will also sign copies of her book, Grit and Grace: My Fight For Equal Pay and Fairness at Goodyear.

BROUGHT TO YOU BY

- The MSU Women's Center's Shannon Weatherly Lecture Series, the Associated Students of Montana State University, the Office of the President, Office of the Provost, MSU ADVANCE Project TRACS, the Year of Engaged Leadership, Leadership Institute, Career Services, Office for Institutional Equity, Women's Faculty Caucus, VOICE Center, Diversity Awareness Office, College of Letters and Science, Dean of Library, College of Agriculture, College of Education, Health and Human Development, College of Arts and Architecture, Jake Jabbs College of Business and Entrepreneurship, College of Nursing, College of Engineering, Vice President for Student Success, Equal Pay Task Force, Bozeman Business and Professional Women, Women's Foundation of Montana, and Montana National Organization for Women.

For more information, contact the Women's Center at 406.994.3836 or by email at danforth@montana.edu