

You are cordially invited to attend an ADVANCEnetwork Workshop entitled

the Future of Science

August 19, 20, 21 | 2007 @ the Gallatin Gateway Inn | Bozeman, MT

This inaugural workshop will pair an examination of the future of science, from both disciplinary and interdisciplinary perspectives, with collaborative work with senior researchers and outside experts on post-tenure career assessment and planning.

Keynote Speaker – M.R.C. Greenwood

Professor of Nutrition at UC Davis and Chancellor Emerita of UC-Santa Cruz

“Women in Science and Higher Education Careers: Glass Ceilings and Now a Glass Cliff?”

Other Featured Speakers:

Dr. Paula Lutz, Dean, College of Letters and Science, Montana State University

Dr. Mariko Chang, Managing Director of ADVANCE, Brown University

Dr. Amy Philipson, Executive Director, ResearchChannel and Assistant Vice President, Steaming Media and TV Technologies, University of Washington

Professional Development Opportunities include an extended workshop on “The Art of Negotiation” and a fireside chat on successful mentoring relationships.

A full agenda is available at: <http://www.montana.edu/wrt/advance.html>

Please RSVP by July 31 to athurlow@montana.edu or 994-6240

For more information:

Anne Camper, anne_c@erc.montana.edu, 994-2272

Susan Capalbo, scapalbo@montana.edu, 994-5629

Linda Hyman, lhyman@montana.edu, 994-4411

Gwen Jacobs, gwen@cns.montana.edu, 994-7334

Sue Monahan, smonahan@montana.edu, 994-5248

Cathy Whitlock, cwhitlock@montana.edu, 994-6910

Future Workshops:

Science and Place (Spring 2008)

Science and the Public Interest (Spring 2009)

Sponsored by an ADVANCE Leadership grant from the National Science Foundation