

2007 Technician of the Year Application

The individual that receives this award will be given a $350 honorarium and a plaque.

Name of Nominee: _____

Education:

High School: _____ College: _____

Vocational Training: _____ Degrees: _____

AALAS Certification Level: _____ Date Received: _____

Other (pertinent education, projects, achievements and awards):

Employment Data:

Present Position: _____

Employer: _____ Supervisor: _____

Years at present position: _____

Total Years in lab animal science: _____

Responsibilities of current position: _____

Check which of the following that describe nominee. All may not apply. Provide detail on checked items (please attach sheets if necessary):

___ 1. Demonstrates a sincere concern for the well being of animals.

___ 2. Demonstrates a high level of performance in animal care and/or related technical duties.

___ 3. Demonstrates initiative to increase his/her knowledge of laboratory animal husbandry and biology by attending branch seminars and technical courses.

___ 4. Has duties that require daily contact with animals (e.g. husbandry, sample collection, necropsy, surgery, diagnostic testing.).

___ 5. Demonstrates innovative approaches to animal care problems.

Recommendation: (Recommendation should be based upon the contributions which nominee has made to the institution.)

Endorsements: (Additional letters of endorsement from supervisors, co-workers or individuals will be accepted.)

Nomination placed by:

Name: _____ Position: _____

Affiliation: _____ Phone #: _____

Nominees must be branch members in good standing.

Please mail or fax by May 1, 2007 to:

Britten Postma, BA, RLAT
Laboratory Animal Resources
The University of Montana-Missoula
32 Campus Dr., UH 116
Missoula, MT 59812
Phone: (406) 243-4892
Fax: (406) 243-6094