NOTE: Financial aid eligibility for the 2012 Summer Session is based on your 2011-2012 FAFSA, which must be received by the federal processor no later than June 30, 2012. Please file your FAFSA(s) electronically at: www.fafsa.ed.gov

All financial aid packages will be awarded based on an assumed 6-8 credits of enrollment.

To be eligible to receive federal loan assistance, you must be enrolled for a minimum of 6 credit hours as a regular student in an eligible program for the purpose of obtaining a degree or certificate. However, if you were eligible to receive a Pell Grant during the academic year 2011/2012 and did not receive the maximum amount, you may be eligible to receive a Federal Pell Grant if enrolled for less than 6 credit hours.

- 1. Would you like to be considered for student loan assistance?
2. Would your parents like to be considered for a PLUS loan? (For parents of dependent students only)
3. Have you attended any schools other than Montana State University in Bozeman since May 1, 2011?

If yes, please list:

Table with 4 columns: School name, Dates attended, School name, Dates attended

- 4. During the 2012 Summer Session, will you be receiving any vocational rehabilitation benefits, scholarship assistance, or any other educational grants, fellowships, or awards?

- 5. Are you taking only online classes?

I certify that the information on this form is true and correct to the best of my knowledge, I do not owe an overpayment of federal aid, and I am not in default on any Title IV loan at any institution. I also understand that if I fail to attend or complete any class on which my 2012 summer session financial aid is based, it will result in my being subject to full or partial repayment of the financial aid funds I received.
