

CIVIL:

C&H Engineering and Surveying, Inc. is seeking a full time Civil Engineer who desires to gain experience in a variety of projects, work in a fast-paced environment, and learn how to create and develop new business relationships. The successful candidate will be enthusiastic, have a desire to work hard and grow with a multi-discipline engineering team.

Qualifications:

- B.S. degree in civil engineering
- Registration as an E.I.T. (preferred)
- 0-5 years' experience
- Experience and/or interest in general site engineering, creating conceptual plans, preparing construction plans, working with senior civil engineers, collaborating with other engineering disciplines and architects, visiting construction sites, and providing technical assistance during design and construction stages.
- Design skills for preparing site plans, grading and drainage plans, storm water design, water and sanitary sewer utility plans, ADA accessibility, roadway plans and profiles, and other associated improvements
- Experience with AutoCAD drafting system and standards; Civil 3D preferred
- Experience with MS Office
- Desire to work as a pro-active team player
- Exceptional technical writing and communication skills

<https://chengineers.com/>