

STRUCTURAL:

C&H Engineering and Surveying, Inc. is seeking a full time Structural Engineer who wishes to gain experience in a variety of projects involving both commercial and residential projects and work in a fast-paced environment. The successful candidate will be enthusiastic, have a desire to work hard and grow with a multi-discipline engineering team. Responsibilities include: Structural design & drafting, inspections, and shop drawing review.

Qualifications:

- Bachelor's degree in civil engineering
- Master's degree in structural engineering (preferred)
- Registration as an E.I.T.
- 0-5 years' experience
- Experience and/or interest in structural engineering with an emphasis in building design, drafting, inspections, and shop drawing review.
- Experience with AutoCAD and Revit drafting system and standards
- Experience with MS Office programs
- Desire to work as a pro-active team player
- Exceptional technical writing and communication skills

Qualities:

Enjoy working with multi-discipline design team, long-term vision, positive attitude and excellent communications skills. Knowledge of visual analysis, and a valid driver license with insurable driving record.

<https://chengineers.com/>