

DEVCO Engineering Inc.

We have an exciting opportunity for a recent or "about to become" Civil Engineering graduate to join a premiere Civil and Structural Engineering firm and be mentored in the design of cold-formed steel structures and elements. This will lead to a Project Management role, where you will get to work on exciting projects and become an expert in this field. You'll receive one-on-one mentoring and coaching. Oh! Did we mention that you get to live in Bozeman, MT and enjoy being in a great outdoor paradise year-round? You do!
