

THURSDAY
Oct. 12, 2017

The Living Legacies
of Elouise Cobell
Yellow Bird Woman

Public screening of the award-winning film

100 Years - One woman's fight for justice

Followed by a discussion panel of Amskapi Pikuni
(Blackfeet) leaders,
planners & educators

When: 6-9pm (reception at 6pm, film begins at 6:30)

Where: Hager Auditorium, Museum of the Rockies/MSU

This event is free and open to the public

Sponsored by MSU's Department of Native American Studies and Native Land Project with support from the Foundation for Community Vitality, MSU Center for Western Lands & Peoples, Hopa Mountain, and The Extreme History Project

An Indigenous Peoples Week Event

Center for Western Lands & Peoples

