

Montana State University
International Education Week
 November 12-16, 2012 Free Admission

All Week	MSU Library	Display of Japanese Artifacts
M Nov 12	4-6 pm Watanabe Restaurant	"Learn to Make Sushi" - Limited to 25 participants ($14) (Registration required: international@montana.edu)
T Nov 13	Noon SUB 233  6:30 pm SUB Ballroom A	"The War on Women in Contemporary Japan" Dr. Tomomi Yamaguchi - Assistant Professor of Anthropology  "Montana Taiko" - Japanese-style drumming ensemble Japanese Students Cultural Evening Pop Culture, Education System and the Four Seasons in Japan
W Nov 14	11:30-1 pm SUB Union Market  Noon SUB 233  7 pm Procrastinator Theater MSU SUB	Japanese Lunch - Chicken Yakitori, Rice, Cold Soba Noodle Salad & Hot Tofu Udon Noodle Bowl ($6.95) "The Inside Story of Japanese Politeness" Dr. Tadimitsu Kamimoto - Visiting Professor, Kumamoto Gakuen University Japanese Film: "Tokyo Sonata" A drama about the implosion of a modern Tokyo family. 2008: Best film Asian Film Awards and Cannes Film Festival winner
Th Nov 15	Noon SUB 233	"LigoCyte as a Model for Biotech Development in Montana - An International Journey" Dr. Robert Bargatzke - CSO, LigoCyte Pharmaceuticals, Inc.
F Nov 16	10 am Bozeman Public Library	Children's Hour: "Girl from the Snow Country" Reading of a traditional Japanese children's story by MSU Japanese students, followed by a chopstick demonstration

