1. Livestock classes are open to both 4-H and FFA members in good standing. All 4-H/FFA livestock entries will be combined for judging and awards.
2. Showmanship is a required class for market, breeding and dairy projects.
3. All animals housed in the Livestock Building at Fair must be entered in the Fair including buddy animals. Animals not entered in the Fair will not be permitted in the building. Buddy animals are permitted to go on the trucks to processors after Fair if there are enough processor slots and at the discretion of the Livestock Committee. Confirm processor choices with the Livestock Committee.
4. Members exhibiting market and breeding animals are required to attend Livestock Quality Assurance training prior to fair entry deadline.
5. All exhibitors in livestock events must show, care for, fit and clean their own animals and stalls with minimal assistance. Minimal assistance for a learning purpose or safety issue is acceptable. Excessive involvement by others could lead to consequences for the exhibitor to be determined by the Livestock Committee, FFA Advisor, and/or Extension Agent.
6. All Exhibitors must show their own livestock unless they have more than one animal entered in the class. In that case, another 4-H/FFA member entered in the county fair may show the extra animal.
7. Exhibitor numbers must be visible every time they enter the ring.
8. All Market Steers, Swine, Lambs, and Goats must have ear tags for the Broadwater County Fair, issued by the 4-H Livestock Committee. Tags need to be clean and legible at Fair. Market rabbits and poultry must have an identification form on file with the Extension Office by June 25th.
9. Exhibitors must furnish their own feed and bring enough to sustain the animal through Sunday afternoon. All feed must be stored outside of the barn in trailers or designated spaces. Members are responsible for feeding their own animals for biosecurity reasons.
10. Animals showing signs of sickness, disease or parasites will be removed from the building at the discretion of the Livestock Committee, Extension Agent and/or FFA Advisor.
11. Exhibitors are responsible for following and adhering to legal withdrawal times for any substances given to an animal prior to or during the Fair. Notify the Extension Agent, FFA Advisor or Livestock Committee immediately if a substance must be administered and the Livestock Sale is within the legal withdrawal time. As a condition of participation in the county fair, the participant also agrees to submit to Broadwater County Fair, at their discretion, any animal entered for immediate testing. Participants agree that the conclusions reached by the Broadwater County Livestock Committee shall be final. Residues found during the carcass inspections may result in the member forfeiting any sale receipts and premiums.
12. Dress code for all classes is as follows:
 - a. 4-H Members - Long-sleeved, collared, button or snap-front shirts in any color. Pants must be dark blue or black. No faded jeans. Shirt must be tucked in. Tie is optional. When showing an animal with hooves, leather boots or sturdy shoes in clean condition are required. Clean tennis shoes are acceptable in the rabbit and poultry classes. 13. Broadwater County Fair reserves the right to question the alteration of any animal's physical or physiological structure as well as any suspected health conditions. As a condition of participation in the county fair, the

- participant agrees to submit to Broadwater County Fair, at their discretion, any animal entered for immediate testing. Tests may include, but not be limited to blood, tissue, fecal and urine. Participant further agrees that the conclusions reached by the Broadwater County Livestock Committee shall be final, without recourse against the Broadwater County Fair. A participant of any animal(s) producing an analysis with a prohibited substance, sabotage, tampering, unethical fitting, or inhumane practices will be barred from future competition at the county fair.
14. The Broadwater County 4-H Livestock Committee reserves the right to question any suspected issues prior to Fair. Animals may also be inspected in the trailer upon arrival to the Fairgrounds by the Livestock Committee, Extension Agent, FFA Advisor or Veterinarian. Any animals displaying unhealthy conditions such as a communicable disease or internal parasites will not be permitted into the barn.
 15. Exhibitors and families must park in designated parking areas.
 16. Livestock Committee, FFA Advisor and Extension Agent have the right to remove an animal from a class or the Fair if it is a safety issue. This includes the Round Robin contest.
 17. A mandatory Exhibitors' Meeting will be held Thursday of Fair week. A parent or legal guardian must attend.
 18. Barn Monitoring: Each exhibitor is responsible for taking care of his or her animals' feed, water, and general care. Barn duty is assigned to each family during the fair and is designed to recognize an animal in trouble or need. Due to biosecurity reasons, animals are to be fed and watered by their owners ONLY! Do not share feed pans, water buckets, misters, etc. If a concern or need is recognized while you are on barn duty, please contact a Livestock Committee member, FFA Advisor or Extension Agent to address the situation.
 19. If barn space is limited, exhibitors may be restricted to one or two animals per species in the barn and/or requested to show from the trailer.
 20. Exhibitors may enter up to five (5) entries in the animal educational display class per division. Animal educational displays will be judged on Tuesday of Fair week at the same time as indoor interviews. 4-H members may enter displays into the 4-H Indoor Silent Auction as long as the items are a quality usable exhibit (such as an animal byproduct). No food or live animals can be sold through the 4-H Indoor Silent Auction.

RULES FOR MARKET ANIMALS

1. All exhibitors with market livestock projects are required to participate in an interview on Monday during Fair setup. Bring an up-to-date record book to the interview.
2. Participants in the Livestock Sales are required to have completed their record books for their respective organizations during the previous year. If livestock record books were not completed, members are ineligible to sell. Any participant wishing to appeal that decision can do so by presenting their appeal, in person, to the Livestock Committee at any regularly scheduled meeting.
3. All exhibitors must be present to setup and take down the livestock barn. If an exhibitor is unable to attend, a representative who can do the work may come in their place. Exhibitor or appointed representative must check-in within 15 minutes of start time and stay until excused. Failure of an exhibitor or appointed person to attend and/or check in within the appropriate time will result in a $75 fee deducted from the sale check. Fee applies to both setup and take down. The Livestock Committee will be responsible for keeping track of those who help.
4. All animals will be weighed at the official fair weigh-in. This weight is the official sale weight. If animals did not make weight, the exhibitor may reweigh the animal one time prior to the end of the designated weigh-in period.
5. If animals do not meet the minimum weight requirements, they will be automatically transferred to the feeder class. If, in the opinion of the judge, an animal is not finished sufficiently to meet current market standards, the judge shall place the animal in the feeder class even though it may meet the minimum weight requirements for the fair.
6. Only animals meeting market qualifications will be included in the sale. No feeder or white ribbon animals will be sold.
7. Exhibitors may weigh in two animals per species. However, exhibitors may only sell one animal per species with a maximum of two (2) species including market poultry and rabbit pens. If a member shows two animals of the same species, the animal with the highest placing ribbon will sell. If the animals have the same ribbon placing, the heaviest animal will sell unless designated otherwise by notifying the Livestock Committee prior to Saturday of Fair.
8. The Broadwater County 4-H Livestock Committee will provide third-party insurance that covers all market animals including feeders in transit to Fair and while animals are on the Fairgrounds. The cost of this insurance will be deducted from the sale checks. The insurance covers all animals going to processors until slaughter. It does not cover animals going home after they leave the Fairgrounds. The insurance covers death and crippling. The insurance covers the market value of that animal which will be compensated to the exhibitor prior to the sale or the buyer after the sale. The Livestock Committee may authorize above market value at the discretion of the committee.

9. Animals are subject to a level of risk after Fair during a short wait period under slaughter and in transit to processing facilities. Additionally, animals may be subject to slaughter inspections at state and federally inspected processing facilities. If an animal dies after the sale or condemned at slaughter, the buyer will be reimbursed market value, unless due to neglect of the exhibitor, at which time the full purchase price will be reimbursed by the exhibitor. Buyers may be given the option of a replacement animal, if available.
10. The Livestock Committee will provide a professional photo for all market livestock animals with the exhibitor. The photo and a written thank you should be delivered or mailed directly to the buyer immediately following the sale. A list of buyers will be available at the Extension Office.
11. The livestock sale will start with the Grand Champion and Reserve Champion of each species rotating between species in the sale order every year. The sale order will then proceed to purple, blue, and red ribbon animals. Sale order will be randomly selected by the computer program within the ribbon colors.
12. Animals awarded a white ribbon will not be sold at the livestock sale.
13. Exhibitor(s) may sell feeder class animals by private treaty but are responsible for arranging for picture(s) and delivery at the end of fair.
14. All sales checks shall be made out to "4-H Livestock Committee". The Livestock Committee will in turn, within a reasonable period, issue checks to Market Livestock Exhibitors, less any fees.
15. A 3.5% commission fee will be deducted from all market livestock sales. This fee will pay for sale expenses (i.e. buyers' pictures, thank you ad, transportation of animals, etc.).
