

Name _____

Club _____

Date _____

Good Production Practice #1

A _____ with your veterinarian where he or she advises and guides you in determining which _____ are appropriate and when to use them as part of your animal project.

The following are all examples of Extra Label Drug Use? True or False

- Increasing dosage.
- Changing the frequency and/or route of administration.
- Changing duration of the treatment.
- Treating a disease or condition not stated on the label.
- Changing the species or life stage to be treated.

Prescription drugs can be purchased by anyone from places such as farm supply stores, animal health salespersons, catalogs and veterinary clinics. True or False

Good Production Practice #2

Biosecurity includes:

-
-
-
-

Internal Biosecurity is keeping disease already in one or more area(s) of the herd from spreading to other are(s). True or False

Good Production Practice #3

Reasons to use antibiotics in livestock are:

-
-
-

Good Production Practice #4

List 5 things you can find on a drug label:

-
-
-

-
-

Medications should be in a _____, _____ and _____ location.

Define the 3 types of medication administration:

Oral –

Topical –

Injection –

What are the 5 different methods for medication administration?

-
-
-
-
-

It is acceptable to administer an injection into the hind quarter of an animal.

True or False

Good Production Practice #5

The Veterinary Feed Directive is regulated by the USDA.

True or False

Veterinary Feed Directive records must be kept a minimum of 2 years.

True or False

Good Production Practice #6

Name 4 methods of identification of livestock:

-
-
-
-

All sheep and goats are required to have Scrapies tag, including castrated males.

True or False

List 4 things you need to record in you medication records:

-
-
-
-

What is a withdrawal time?

Good Production Practice #7

List 5 things you should include in your environmental inspection:

-
-
-
-
-

Good Production Practice #8

How can you control hazards in your project?

What is an emergency action plan?

How can you protect your health when working with your project?

Good Production Practice #9

It is important to provide feed, water and an environment that promotes the well-being of your project animal(s). True or False

What are 2 good ways to determine animal performance?

-
-

When evaluating body condition score the higher the number the better the score. True or False

Define the following terms:

Flight Zone –

Point of Balance –

Following/Herding –

Good Production Practice #10

What tools can you use for continual improvement?

-
-