We are hoping that everyone is having a great summer so far and are staying cool in this heat!

Please take time to read all the way through the newsletter, check your food booth shifts, and call us with any questions.

Keep an eye out for any mail from the Extension Office, as we will be mailing your exhibitor packets in the near future. If you have any questions or suggestions, please feel free to reach out to Katie or Hannah!

Tips for Interview

Judging

- * Arrive at your interview early
- * Dress nicely for the interview
- * Greet your judge warmly with a handshake
- * Be ready to discuss positive outcomes of your project, as well as areas that didn't turn out as well as you expected.
- * Prepare for your interview by considering what you learned, and what you would do differently.

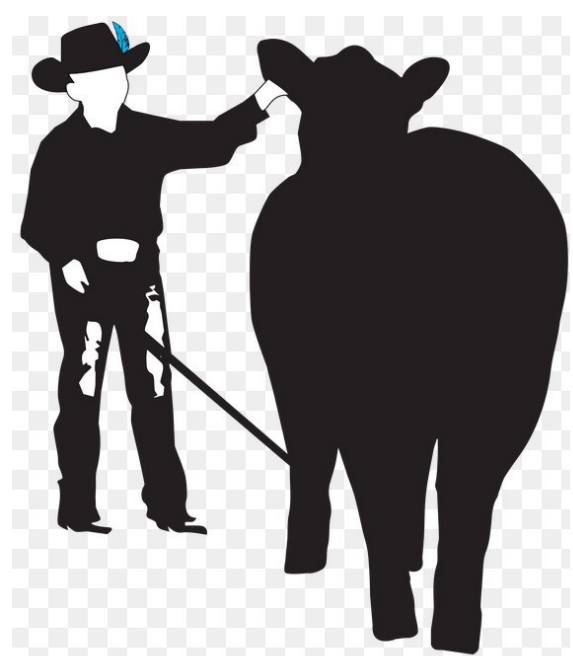

Some questions you may be asked:

- * Why did you choose this project?
- * What did you enjoy most?
- * What was the most difficult?
- * What did you learn from the problems you encountered?
- * What will you do differently?
- * Who helped you with the project?
- * What new things did you learn?
- * How will you apply what you've learned?
- * Do you plan to continue the project next year?

Livestock interviewers may ask questions appropriate to your level, about:

- * Feed records
- * Break even price
- * Animal health and care, medications
- * Animals knowledge about breeds, anatomy
- * Feed knowledge
- * Meat products
- * Marketing

 This list doesn't include every question that may be asked by your interviewer, but is meant to give you an idea about areas you should be ready to discuss.
