

Nanna Flesch Memorial Scholarship

INTRODUCTION: The Canyon Creed Stock 4-H club in Lewis and Clark County and Toole County 4-H Council started this scholarship to remember Nanna Flesch, a leader and 4-H mom in Toole County.

Who: 4-H Member new to the livestock project that does not have the means or place to raise an animal.

What: $1000 for a steer, $300 for pig, $300 for lamb, $200 for goat project

Where: Toole County

When: Applications due October 9th, 2023

How: Submit your application to

Toole County Extension Office

226 1st St S

Shelby, MT 59474

Or to Kim Woodring Kimberly.woodring1@montana.edu (406) 424-8350

How it works:

- Fill out the application and submit it to the Toole County Extension Office by October 9th, 2023
- The recipients, after a vetting process, will get to choose an animal to raise. Recipients will be announced within 30 days.
- Applicants may be interviewed.

As a recipient

- Raising an animal is a big commitment, but we have many people willing to help!
- As a new member, you and your parent/guardian will meet with the host location's owner to see if it is a good match as far as housing and travel distance to care for your animal
- Toole County 4-H Council will provide the sponsorship up front so you can purchase an animal and buy feed or supplies.
- Raising animals comes with costs and risks. Costs associated with raising an animal from feed, supplies, vaccinations, healthcare, or vet services are the responsibility of the animal owner.
- The recipient, parent/ guardian will sign an agreement with the host location/ landowner.
- Logistics and transportation are the responsibility of the animal owner.

Recipients will be selected by a committee and members of the Toole County 4-H Council. The committee will be set up by the County Agent. No family member of an applicant will be on the selection committee.
