Yellowstone County 4-H Foundation

What is the Yellowstone County 4-H Foundation?

The Yellowstone County 4-H Foundation is a nonprofit, charitable, and educational corporation and has no capital stock. Membership includes 4-H leaders and members of Yellowstone County, and any person providing contributions to the Foundation. All funds of the foundation are spent at the discretion and approval of the board of directors.

What can the Yellowstone County 4-H Foundation do?

The objective and purpose of the Foundation is to promote and give financial aid to all types of 4-H programs and members.

How can you contribute?

You can help our youth become better leaders and citizens by making a contribution to the Yellowstone County 4-H Foundation. Your gifts, memorials, cash, bonds, etc. contributed to the Yellowstone 4-H Foundation are deductible for income and gift tax purposes under Regulation 501(c)3. You may earmark your donations for special purposes. Contributions can be mailed to Yellowstone County 4-H Foundation, PO Box 35021, Billings, MT 59107.
