

Knowledge à la Carte

January 10 and 11, 2011

Start the semester off right! Join us on the MSU campus for two days of workshops on topics ranging from developing effective questions for clickers to probing the secrets of Google. Multiple workshops (some concurrent) will be offered and are open to all—faculty, staff and students.

Dates and Times	Workshop Locations
Monday, January 10	Engineering Physical Sciences Bldg. Rm. 127	Renne Library Classroom
10:00-10:50 a.m.	Instructor Desire2Learn Drop-In Clinic —Sarah Veltkamp, Extended University	Google Secrets —Greg Notess, Library
11:00-11:50 a.m.	Creating Quizzes in Respondus —Sarah Veltkamp, Extended University
1:00-1:50 p.m.	Instructor Desire2Learn Drop-In Clinic —Julie Tatarka, Extended University
2:00-2:50 p.m.	Smartpens —Ritchie Boyd, Office of the Provost
3:00-3:50 p.m.		EndNote for Citation Management —Greg Notess, Library
Tuesday, January 11
1:00-1:50 p.m.	Instructor Desire2Learn Drop-In Clinic —John Usher, Extended University	Getting Back on Track—Academic Survival for the New Semester (study skills workshop) —Terra Cusack, Gallatin College Programs
2:00-2:50 p.m.	Student Desire2Learn Drop-In Clinic —John Usher & Sarah Veltkamp, Extended University
3:00-3:50 p.m.	Engaging Uses of Clickers in the Classroom —Ritchie Boyd, Office of the Provost

Refreshments will be served • No RSVP required—just drop in!

Questions about the workshops may be addressed to:
Ritchie Boyd (jrboyd@montana.edu) or Kaylee Ranck (kranck@montana.edu)