

Reading & Discussion Circle

sponsored by the
MSU Teaching & Learning Committee

An invitation to join a book discussion group

Spring Semester 2011

Because of your ongoing interest in the importance of improving teaching, the Teaching & Learning Committee would like to invite you to participate in a book discussion group.

The discussion group will meet two times during the semester and discuss the book Making the Most of College: Students Speak Their Minds by Richard J. Light*. These sessions will be facilitated by members of the Teaching & Learning Committee, and are similar to the ones we had during Spring Semester 2010. We received favorable feedback on this activity.

There are a limited number of spaces in the group. If you are interested in participating, please RSVP to annea@montana.edu by Friday, Jan. 21, 2011. We will send you more information at that time so that you can begin your reading as soon as possible.

*A few copies of this book are available now for lending from the Office of the Provost; contact annea@montana.edu.

Each book discussion group meeting will be worth 1 unit toward the Certificate of Teaching Enhancement.
