2015 Graduate Student Summit – October

Plans are under way for this event. The Graduate Student Summit aims to expose graduate students to career paths in and outside of academia, offers professional development tools in pursuing those careers, and is a chance to build camaraderie with other graduate students.

The Graduate School will be forming a student committee to help plan the summit with the first meeting taking place in early June. To find out more contact Ann Vinciguerra at The Graduate School.

Commencement— May 9, 2015

To participate, RSVP to the Registrar's office here.

For students earning an advanced degree, this helpful video shows you how to wear the "hood" and what to expect at the commencement ceremony.

Congratulations Graduates!

The Graduate School offers sincere congratulations to this year's graduates. Your degree represents an outstanding accomplishment.

Graduation does not mean your relationship with MSU has ended. As an alumnus or alumnae, your success is our success, and we encourage you to keep in touch with The Graduate School. We look forward to hearing about your accomplishments.
