The Graduate Student Network is pleased to announce its second community volunteer project to take place this summer. The first activity at the Gallatin Valley Food Bank was a success, and participants agreed that it was a great chance take a break from their studies, meet other graduate students and serve the community. The next volunteer activity is as follows:

July 21, 4:30-7:30 pm
Community Café, 302 North 7th
Community Café is a Pay-What-You-Can restaurant that is part of the Human Resource Development Council's Emergency Food and Nutrition Initiative. Ten graduate students are needed for the evening's dinner service. Students will help set up, serve food, and clean up after the meal.

If you would like to participate, click here to register. Please register by Noon on Tuesday, July 19. We will contact you via email that afternoon to let you know if you are part of the ten or if you've been wait-listed.

If we cannot accommodate you this time, there will be additional opportunities throughout the year. Please contact Ann at The Graduate School (ann.vinciguerra@montana.edu; 994-5729) if you have questions or suggestions for future volunteer activities.
