Bias Literacy Training

Review Committee Membership

Only tenured faculty members
- Ideally, at least half full professors. No emeritus faculty members.

Required to attend orientation and bias literacy training

No one whose dossier is under review in that cycle

Conflicts of Interest:
- Personal, business or professional relationship that could be perceived to preclude objective evaluation
- Could realize personal, financial, professional or other gain or loss
- You must declare potential COI before any deliberation of that candidate
- Candidates may disclose potential COI to Provost Conduct of Review

a) Were preceding reviews conducted in a substantive manner and according to policies and procedures?
   ◦ If no, return dossier to the appropriate level of review to remedy
   ◦ Once remedied, dossier will be reconsidered by each subsequent review level

b) Conduct independent, substantive review of the dossier ◦ Assess quantity, quality and significance of the candidate’s work.
   ◦ Does candidate meet the appropriate standards defined in Role and Scope?

c) Write an evaluation letter for each candidate ◦ Include recommendation, rationale and vote tally
   ◦ Evidence that supports recommendation and reasons for any negative votes ◦ Add letter to dossier (Folder 1) and send copy to candidate.

Tips for writing your letters

Address it to the next level of review

Include:
   ◦ Statement about how prior reviews were conducted
   ◦ Clear recommendation with vote tally
   ◦ Rationale with specific data

Address all criteria and avoid extraneous information. Use same terminology as in Role and Scope / Faculty Handbook

Stick to the dossier

Pay attention to the review period

Use gender-neutral language (e.g., “the candidate,” “Asst. Prof. Smith”)

d) Ensure references to external and internal letters are accurate.
   ◦ All evaluation letters, including yours

e) If you would like additional clarification or documentation:
   ◦ Submit in writing to candidate, prior review committee or review administrator; candidates have 5 days to respond
   ◦ Add written request and response to dossier (Folder 1)
   ◦ If required, re-evaluation at all levels of review

f) Only committee members may be present during committee deliberation and voting

g) Notify the next level of review when review is complete ◦ If candidate is allowed to respond, next review must wait until after the deadline for response

h) Record vote on Vote Tally Sheet in the dossier

i) If you will not meet published deadline for good cause, notify the candidate along with the reasons why Confidentiality

All reviews of faculty are confidential personnel matters
- Every person participating in the review process will keep all matters in confidence, during and after the review process.

Candidates, reviewers, administrators and faculty may not approach committee members, students, staff or reviewers

No information about the substance of the review may be communicated to those ineligible to participate in the decision

Faculty members recommended for retention, tenure and/or promotion will be announced by the Provost

Suspected Legal/Ethical Violations

If you suspect legal or ethical violations by any candidate or participant in the review process, you are required to report it to the Provost.

Final Thoughts

MSU’s multi-layer process ensures fair and substantive assessment

Bear in mind that reviews shall be:
- Limited to materials included in the dossier
- Concerned with work conducted during the review period
- Based on the criteria, indicators and standards in the candidate’s unit’s Role and Scope document

Your careful and conscientious work is vital

Thank you for your service!
