

BUILDING LEADERS & COMMUNITIES

REAL MONTANA

F O U N D A T I O N

WHO WE ARE

The Resource Education and Agriculture Leadership Montana Foundation fosters donor relationships to ensure long-term financial stability and growth for the REAL Montana Program, which builds a network of informed and engaged leaders for Montana’s natural resource industries. .

Foundation Directors: Sue Ann Streufert: Chair, Scott Blain, Taylor Brown, Katie Cooper, Mike Hatten, Cary Hegreberg, Shawn Fladager, Butch Ewen, Jeff Welborn, Tara Becken, and Jaime Edmundson

WHAT WE DO

The program is a two-year cycle of classes, tours, networking opportunities, and travel designed to heighten knowledge and enhance skills of emerging leaders. Classes consist of up to 20 participants competitively selected to represent a wide variety of natural resource industries across the state. The Foundation’s vision is to support the growth and longevity of the program in order to invest in a future of empowered leaders for Montana’s natural resource industries.

WHY WE DO IT

According to a recent study, Montana has the second highest demand for leaders per capita in the country. It is estimated that one in every 13 adults in the state must hold a leadership position to keep the state’s existing government and nonprofit organizations running. Agriculture and natural resource industries statewide are also facing unprecedented change due to, consumer preferences, environmental concerns, government regulation, and global trade. REAL Montana was formed to meet this demand both in the community leadership and natural resource sectors, ensuring strong and cohesive leaders are available in our communities and vital industries.
